

I think the Telephone Consumer Protection Act is vital to insure a peaceful life at home free from unwanted interruptions at all hours of the day and night. It is a invasion of privacy that is unnecessary. Robert A. Bauer